

OUR GLORIOUS FOURTH

FLAG OF THE STATES UNITED.

Bright are the stars of heaven—
Bright are our standard's stars;
Rosy the clouds at sunrise—
Crimson our banner's bars.

Out of the East came empire;
Westward it makes its way—
Westward our country's ensign
Follows the path of day.

Symbol of lofty progress,
Emblem of promise true;
Sign of a grander greatness
Than ever the old world knew.

Historic, the spangled banner,
Led forth the free to fight;
Prophetic, the flag of freedom,
Stands for a people's might.

Flag of the States united,
Hope of a war-torn earth—
God gave the world His blessing
On the day of thy glorious birth.

The stars and the bars that were fashioned
From the plan of the heavens above,
Are as signs of the favor of angels;
Are as tokens of peace and love.

In the dawn of the twentieth century,
God, bid the world-war cease;
Give to our land, America,
The mightier power of peace.

July 4, 1901.

THE NATAL DAY OF THE LAND WHOSE FLAG FLIES IN HAWAII

An Interesting Program of Parades, Sports and Speeches to Celebrate the Fourth in Honolulu and Pearl City.

WHILE there has been no set program arranged for the celebration of the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of American liberty, yet notwithstanding, the day will be observed in several ways, and the date that commemorates the dawn of our national independence will not pass without having been paid due respect.

To begin with, there will be a parade by the First Battalion at 7:45 sharp. It was the original intention to have the parade at a later hour, but so many of the members of the different companies are intent on seeing the boat races at Pearl City that the time was changed for their accommodation. The line of march will be as follows: Up Miller street to Beretania, to Fort, to Merchant, and thence to the Capitol grounds, where there will be a review. The Fire Department will also appear in the parade.

At the hour of 8:45 the special train to Pearl City will leave the Honolulu depot of the Oahu Railroad Company. As soon as the train has left Aiea, a telephone message will be sent to the judges, and the competing crews will be sent to the starting point. By the time the spectators will have arrived, some forty minutes after the train has left Honolulu, the oarsmen will be in position, ready to start, and no delay will be experienced in getting them over the course. As soon as the races are over, every one will return to this city, and the rest of the day may be passed in several different ways.

The event at Pearl Harbor today will be one of the biggest, if not the biggest, one of its kind that has ever occurred in the history of Hawaiian amateur athletics. Unlike the races of previous years, the junior race will be called last. This has been done, so that the seniors will be sure of a smooth course and a quiet morning. If either of the races should, through any circumstance, be declared off, the junior race will be the one.

The Healan crew is the favorite by long odds, especially with the young ladies. There will be an enormous amount of hunting, handkerchiefs and ribbons displayed by patriotic enthusiasts. The stores had exhausted their stock of handkerchiefs early yesterday afternoon, and it was impossible to secure one anywhere, for love or money. There was also a big run in the jaunty man-o-war white duck hats trimmed with the red or the blue. Numbers of rooters armed with small guidons of blue or of red, are prepared to make the shores of Pearl Harbor look like a waving fringe of color.

Note—The club colors of each crew will be displayed at the half mile and mile stakes in the order of passing.

The races will start at the head of Pearl Harbor, and end at the wharf just Waikiki of the Healan training quarters.

From 1 to 6 in the afternoon the two boat clubs will hold open house, in which music and dancing will form the principal attractive features. The yachting enthusiasts will spend a large portion of the day on the deep blue sea. They will race down to Pearl Harbor, and after the contests have been concluded, they will race back. This will form a very interesting feature of the day's doings in itself.

At noon today, the Philadelphia, now lying at the Navy wharf, will fire a salute of twenty-one guns. The shipping
